

'Blue Ribbon' Panel Set for Isen Dinner

A "blue ribbon" panel of past and present Torrance citizens, and leading figures in the fields of industry, labor, government, religion, and services clubs will appear as a part of next Wednesday's testimonial banquet program honoring Mayor Albert Isen of Torrance.

Judge Joe Rayercraft of the Superior Court will appear as the principal speaker at the "non-partisan" civic event to be presented in the Jump'n

Jack Restaurant on Wednesday, March 14, at 8 p.m. Joseph Platt and Dick Floyd are co-chairmen of the committee of Torrance residents sponsoring the event.

MAYOR ISEN'S participation in the various segments of community life, and his contributions to programs involving the public welfare during his seven years as the city's mayor will be reviewed by a series of speakers. Although the list of speakers is incomplete, and contains some surprise guests, the committee has released a partial list of confirmed speakers.

It includes Fred Mill, past president of the Chamber of Commerce; Kenneth Hahn, Los Angeles County Supervisor; Charles Perry Walker, former mayor of Manhattan Beach and past president of the League of California Cities; Bill King, president of the Torrance Lions; Ernie Winters, representing Burton Chace, Los Angeles County Supervisor; Dr. Allen Pyeatt, and Charles Deck, president of the Torrance Property Owners' Assn.

Other members of the testimonial dinner committee are: Fred Hansen, treasurer; John Fedor, Frank Burk, Herbert Fisher, John Lenton, Jim Greer, Robert Waegner and Arnold White.

Frode Kilstofte Named For Gibson's Campaign

The campaign of Councilman John S. Gibson Jr., for county assessor gained momentum this week with the announcement by Chairman Lloyd Menveg of the appointment of Frode Kilstofte, Wilmington civic leader, as treasurer of the Gibson for Assessor Committee. Kilstofte is former president of the Board of Recreation and Park Commissioners of Los Angeles, and former member of the Sports Arena Building Committee and the Los Angeles Coliseum Commission.

"In addition to Councilman Gibson's record of public service, his long experience as a successful businessman makes him exceptionally qualified for the office of county assessor," Kilstofte declared. "I consider it a privilege to help elect this man who has served the citizens of this area so well. John Gibson's sterling qualities in both business and civic affairs are well known, and have already engendered spontaneous support for his campaign."

"ONE OF Councilman Gibson's most important qualifications, it seems to me, is his open-door policy to all constituents," Kilstofte continued. "I have known John Gibson for many years, and I have always been impressed by the fact that he is available at all times to all citizens, whatever the problem. He has stated that he will adhere to this same policy as county assessor. This will mean that the taxpayers of Los Angeles County will receive personal attention to their tax assessment problems."

A resident and businessman of the harbor area for 25 years, Frode Kilstofte was a founding member of the Exchange Club in 1924, and is the last active charter member of the Wilmington Lions Club. The first chairman of the Wilmington YMCA in 1945, he has served on the Metropolitan YMCA Camp Board since 1943, and was its chairman in 1957.

AS A MAN who specifies community service as his own hobby, Kilstofte pointed to Gibson's record in this field. "John Gibson founded the first Boy's Club of California in 1935," he noted, "and twice received outstanding awards for distinguished service — from the National Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1935, and from the Civitan Service Club International in 1938. For three successive years, 1935 through 1937, he served as vice president of the California Junior Chamber of Commerce, and later as chairman of important statewide committees of that organization. Councilman Gibson's service to others, both public and private, is always marked by constructive accomplishment."

North High Speakers in Sweepstakes

North High School placed first, winning the sweepstakes trophy at the Spring Novice Speech Tournament, competing against 13 other schools at Aviation High School.

Tied for second place were South High School and Serra High School with a total of 29 points. This was five points below North High's total of 34. St. Anthony placed third and Aviation, fourth.

Gold medals were awarded to Kip Whelan and Sharon Lininger, impromptu; and Ralph Lippmann and Mark Woodruff, "B" debate.

THOSE WINNING superiority certificates were Marilyn Harris, India Morningstar, and Pamela Struble, dramatic interpretation; William Goldsmith, impromptu; Gloria Stepp, humorous interpretation; Carol Parmley, original oratory; and Sharon Lininger, oratorical interpretation.

The two debate teams that were awarded certificates of excellence for "B" debate were Stuart Goodgold and David Valeska, and William Lundy and Kay Bohnet.

Nine speakers won certificates of excellence in other fields. They were Joan Keller, Karen Brown, Sue Edwards, Kip Whelan, Stuart Goodgold, Susan Oldt, Lila Taka, Kathy Borges, and Sharilyn Rose.

Forensic Teams From El Camino In Competition

El Camino College forensic teams will participate in the California State Junior College Championships at San Francisco State College Friday and Saturday.

Mason Wolpert, James Masuda and Ramon Diaz compose the two debate teams which will be competing in the tournament.

About 55 teams from California junior colleges are expected to participate in the debates.

Debate topic for this year is, "Resolved: That labor organizations should be under the jurisdiction of anti-trust organizations."

Chamber to Meet

A Harbor District Chambers of Commerce meeting is scheduled at 7:30 tonight in the offices of Judge Irving P. Austin, 215 Acacia St., Compton.
